

PROJECT RETURN PEER SUPPORT NETWORK'S PEER ADVOCATE TRAINING

FUNDED BY: LACDMH—MHSA

In partnership with the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health Workforce Education and Training Division and Mental Health America of Los Angeles, Project Return Peer Support Network is offering a five-week Peer Advocate Training series. The training is 5 days a week, 8 hours per day. It is for individuals interested in working as a Peer Advocate and/or entry level positions in the mental health field. The series covers mental health support and recovery techniques, effective communication, ethics, as well as the history and roles of peer advocates and group facilitation. Courses begin Monday, February 27, 2012, and will commence with a graduation ceremony and awarding of a PAT certificate on Friday, March 30, 2012. Applicants must commit to completing the entire five-week series in order to receive a certificate.
